First Things First

If You Say So, Part 2

November 15, 2026

Discussion Questions:

1. Growing up, what did you learn about money and giving, and how does that influence you today?

2. If everything belongs to God, how should that shape the way we give, spend, and save?

3. In 2 Corinthians 8:5, the believers gave themselves first to the Lord. Why does surrendering ourselves matter before surrendering our money?

4. How could viewing ten percent as a starting point shape your generosity? What might cause it to become a box you check?

5. Which aspect of giving challenges you most being intentional, proportional, or cheerful and why?

6. What practical step would help your finances reflect greater trust in God this week?
