Discussion Questions:

1. Do you know someone who's a good decision-maker? What makes you think that about them? Are these qualities similar or different from your own decision-making style?
2. Read Proverbs 16:25. How does that make you feel? Can you think of a decision you regret that could have been avoided if you had either asked more questions or seriously considered the advice someone else gave you?
3. Now read Proverbs 27:12. Have you ever seen trouble coming but kept moving in that direction anyway? Have you seen trouble coming and taken refuge? What made the difference?
4. From finances, to daily routines, eating habits, to school and parenting, life can be really challenging in different seasons. Is there a certain area of your life where it is particularly difficult to make consistent, good decisions?
