I'll Keep Trusting

If You Say So, Part 1

November 8, 2026

Discussion Questions:

1. Think about the different seasons of your life. Can you share a time when trusting God was difficult but, looking back, you could see He was still at work?

2. Read Luke 5:4-5. Peter had worked all night and caught nothing. He was tired, disappointed, and probably ready to call it quits. Have you ever experienced a season when you felt like you were working hard, doing everything you knew to do, but weren't seeing results? What kept you going?

3. Peter said, "But because you say so, I will let down the nets." What is the difference between trusting God and trusting your own experience? Is there an area of your life where disappointment has made it difficult to keep taking steps of faith?

4. Read Proverbs 3:5-6. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding." Why is it so difficult to trust God when His direction doesn't make sense to us? What does it look like to let God's Word have the final say, even when we don't understand the outcome?

5. Read Romans 8:18. Paul reminds us that our present suffering cannot compare with the glory God has promised. How does an eternal perspective change the way we handle difficult circumstances today? What does trusting God look like when we don't know what the next season holds?

6. Read John 16:33. Jesus never promised that following Him would mean a trouble-free life. He promised that we could have peace because He has overcome the world. What is one situation, relationship, disappointment, or fear that you need to surrender to God right now? What would it look like this week to say: "I don't know what this season holds. But if you say so, I'll keep trusting."
