Discussion Questions:

1. In what ways have you seen comparison steal your contentment?
2. How does comparison distort the way you view others and yourself? Can you think of a time when you felt threatened by someone else's success instead of celebrating it?
3. Saul's obsession with David's success disrupted his peace and gratitude. What steps can you take to cultivate peace and gratitude in your life, even when others around you are thriving?
4. How has comparison distracted you from your God-given purpose? What can you do to refocus on what God has called you to do without being sidetracked by the achievements of others?
