SMALL GROUP QUESTIONS: SUIT UP – Ephesians 6:14–17

1. Which piece of the armor do you think you wear well—and which one feels like it's missing or needs repair? Why?
2. What are some “flaming arrows” the enemy has been launching at you lately (e.g., lies, fear, temptation)? How have you responded?
3. The belt of truth holds everything together. What “truth” are you tempted to loosen or compromise in your life right now?
4. The shoes are peace, but they've got spikes. How are you doing at standing firm—and where do you need to advance with the gospel?
5. If faith is your shield, what are you feeding it? And what are you watching, scrolling, or listening to that might be weakening it?
6. The sword of the Spirit is the Word. When's the last time you used it in battle—not just read it, but declared it or applied it?
7. If you really believed you were in a spiritual war this week, what would you do differently tomorrow?
