

Everyone Has a Story

Who We Are, Part 1

October 4, 2026

Discussion Questions:

1. When you hear the phrase “Everyone has a story,” what does it mean to you?
2. Why is it so easy to judge someone by one moment, decision, or label without understanding their whole story?
3. We said, “We all walk with a limp.” How should remembering our own brokenness change the way we treat the brokenness of others?
4. Jesus consistently noticed people others overlooked. Who are the kinds of people we are most likely to overlook today?
5. How has Jesus changed or redeemed part of your story? What part of your story could God use to encourage someone else?
6. Who is one person God may be challenging you to see, listen to, love, or extend grace to this week?
