Discussion Questions:

1. Who is someone you admire for their success? What do you think makes their life meaningful beyond their known achievements?
2. Read Proverbs 23:4-5. Ted described seeing both the highest highs and behind-the-scenes realities of professional golf. Why do you think success often looks different from the inside than it does from the outside?
3. When Ted realized success wasn't enough, he turned toward something deeper. Where do people typically turn when they realize achievement isn't satisfying?
4. Scottie's perspective on identity is different from many others in his field. What does it look like to have an identity that isn't rooted in performance or success?
5. What are some practical ways we can keep our identity from being based on what we do or achieve? After reading Psalm 37:4, how does the order in that verse shape your understanding of how God forms our desires?
6. Ted uses his platform and success to point people to Jesus. What does it look like for someone to use their influence for a greater purpose? What is one way you can influence others for God's Kingdom from where you are today?
