Discussion Questions:

1. Whether it's within your small group or other close friends, has there been a time in your life where someone has helped you interrupt a broken soundtrack? Read Proverbs 17:22. How did that interruption bring freedom and strength?
2. Sometimes it seems like we're our own worst enemy and that we create the most harmful soundtracks about ourselves. Read 2 Corinthians 10:3-5. What's been one of the soundtracks that you've believed? What are ways that you can take broken soundtracks captive so that they are obedient to Christ?
3. What are the areas in your life that you tend to create the most broken soundtracks? What began as just a single broken soundtrack for you, but has developed over time into an entire album?
4. One of God's most effective and powerful tools for interrupting broken soundtracks is finding Christ-centered community. During seasons of connection with others, what have been the greatest benefits for you?
